Members Cooperative Credit Union announces its first $250 Emergency Fund Account winner

(Cloquet, MN) October 8, 2009 – Tom Gilbert of Cloquet was given a $250 check from his credit union on Tuesday.

Members Cooperative Credit Union (MCCU) recently launched a new product designed to save the day when unexpected crises arise. MCCU’s Emergency Fund Account (EFA) offers incentives to EFA account holders who build their savings on a monthly basis through automatic transfers. Each transfer of $5 or more qualifies account holders for entry into monthly drawings of $250 and annual drawings of $1,000.*

Gilbert, a new member of MCCU, was randomly selected on September 30 as the credit union’s first $250 winner. He was presented his check by Tessie Lindgren, the loan officer who opened his Emergency Fund Account.

“Opening this account seemed like a good idea, just in case anything unexpected should happen,” Gilbert said.

Additional details and official rules can be found at membersccu.org. To open an Emergency Fund Account, stop in to any one of MCCU’s six locations in Duluth, Cloquet, Aitkin and McGregor.
