E&A Credit Union Goes Casual to Help Haiti Relief

1/22/2010

On Thursday, January 21st, E&A

Credit Union held a casual day where employees could wear jeans if they donated to the Red Cross Haiti Relief and Development fund. E&A Credit Union employees contributed over $460.00 to the Red Cross. “This is a great example of our employees representing the credit union philosophy of people helping people. We believe that it is our responsibility to help out anyway that we can,” stated Jan Rose, CEO/President of E&A Credit Union.

E&A Credit Union is the largest not-for-profit financial institution in the Blue Water Area. Established in 1935, E&A has grown from a single office into a four-branch institution with locations in Port Huron, Marysville, Fort Gratiot, and Crosswell as well as thousands of free ATMs throughout the state. It serves nearly 32,000 members and is over $200 million in assets. E&A is dedicated to providing a better financial way of life for its membership through quality products and superior service. New members are always welcome and it’s easy to join. For more information, visit <http://www.eacu.org> or call 810-966-4600.
