Terms and Conditions Agreement for the Credit Union Internet Bill Pay Service

Note: All references within this document to the terms "Payment Service" and/or "the Service" reflect the Internet Bill Pay Service offered by the Credit Union.

Electronic Disclosure of the Terms and Conditions Agreement for the Internet Bill Pay Service. Bill Pay Service.

I acknowledge electronic receipt of the Terms and Conditions Agreement ("Agreement") associated with The Credit Union's Internet Bill Pay Service and agree that I have read and will abide by this agreement. I also agree The Credit Union does not need to provide me with an additional paper (non-electronic) copy of this Agreement unless specifically requested. Further, I understand that using my browser's print command and a printer I can print a copy of this Agreement.

Use of a Third-Party Bill Pay Service Provider.

U.S. Central Credit Union is the third-party bill pay service provider who The Credit Union has contracted with to provide bill pay service to its members. U.S. Central Credit Union will be processing bill payments and answering questions directly related to these member-initiated bill payments. Accordingly, the term "Service" represents the customer service provided by U.S. Central Credit Union to The Credit Union bill pay subscribers on The Credit Union behalf. The Credit Union, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to change Internet bill pay service providers.

Enrollment Request for the Internet Bill Pay Service

The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse enrollment in the Internet Bill Pay Service to any member who does not meet the Internet Bill Pay Service criteria which has been established by the credit union and/or U.S. Central Credit Union. Included in this criterion is a requirement that subscribers to this service must live within the United States, its possessions and territories.

Internet Bill Pay Service

As used in this Agreement, the term "Payee" means the vendor, biller, person or entity to whom you wish a bill payment to be directed; "Payment Instructions" means the information provided by you to the Service for a bill payment to be made to your Payee (e.g., Payee name, account number, payment amount, payment date, etc.); "Payment Account" means your Share Draft account and, in the case of non-sufficient funds and/or an overdrawn account, any overdraft accounts that are set up except VISA or MasterCard overdraft accounts; "Business Day" means Monday through Friday, excluding Federal holidays; "Payment Date" means the Business Day of your choice upon which your bill payment will be made and your Payment Account will be debited; and "Cutoff Time" means 4:45 p.m. Eastern Time on any Business Day, and is the time by which you must transmit instructions to have them considered entered on that particular Business Day.

By providing the Payment Service with the names and account information of those entities and/or persons to whom you wish to direct payment, you authorize the Service to follow the Payment Instructions that it receives from you or your authorized user through the Internet Bill Pay Service. When the Service receives a payment instruction, you authorize it to debit your Payment Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close to the Business Day designated by you as soon as reasonably possible.

For this reason, it is necessary that all Payment Dates selected by you be no less than seven (7) Business Days before the actual due date for payments that are being sent by check and five (5) days for ACH payments, (not the late date and/or a date in the grace period). It is your responsibility to schedule your bill payments in such a manner that your obligations will be paid on time. Payment instructions entered after the Cutoff Time or on a non-Business Day will be considered entered in the Service on the next Business Day. If you properly follow the procedures described herein, and the Service fails to send a payment according to the Payment Instructions received, the Service will bear responsibility for all late charges. In any other event, including but not limited to choosing a Payment Date which is not seven (7) Business Days before the due date or on or past the due date stated on your invoice or bill, the risk of incurring and the responsibility for paying any and all late charges or penalties shall be borne by you.

A bill payment is "Pending" starting from the time you enter Payment Instructions until the payment is "Processed." A bill payment is "Processed" starting at the Cutoff Time on the Payment Date. A bill payment, which is sent via paper check, is considered "Cleared" when the item has been processed through the Federal Reserve system. You may cancel or edit any payment with a Pending status (including recurring bill payments). There is no charge for canceling or editing a payment with a Pending status. Please note: we may not have a reasonable opportunity to act on any stop payment or cancellation order given after a payment is "Processed" and it is not possible to stop or cancel a payment which is "Cleared." If you desire to cancel or stop any payment, which is either "Pending" or "Processed", you must call Solidarity Community Customer Service at 1-800-999-5894. Although we will make every effort to accommodate your request, we will have no liability for failing to do so. Stop payment requests sent to us via electronic mail or in any other manner will not reach us in time for us to act on your request. Stop payment requests will be accepted only if we have a reasonable opportunity to act on such a stop payment order. Stop payments will not be issued for payments unless a form has been filled out with the member's signature and received by the Credit Union. The charge for each stop payment order will be the then current charge for such service as disclosed in our Rate & Fee Schedule. The Service will use its best efforts to make all your payments properly. However, the Service shall incur no liability if it is unable to complete any payments initiated by you through the Service because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

1. If, through no fault of ours, your Payment Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the payment or transfer, or the transfer would exceed the credit limit of your established line of credit account, if applicable (Note: The Credit Union may, at its option, pay a scheduled bill payment which exceeds the balance in the checking account by transferring the amount of the resulting overdraft from your available line of credit or the prime share savings account, indicated on the Membership Application and Agreement or on any subsequent Account Change Card. Per Federal regulation, pre-authorized telephone, Internet or automatic transfers from prime share savings to cover Checking overdrafts cannot exceed six in number per calendar month);
2. The bill payment processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the Service about the malfunction before you execute the transaction;
3. The Payee mishandles or delays a payment sent by the Service;
4. You have not provided the Service with the correct names, phone numbers, or account information for those persons or entities to whom you wish to direct payment;
5. Circumstances beyond the Service's control (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force) that prevent the proper execution of the transaction and the Service has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

Provided none of the foregoing five (5) exceptions to the Service's performance obligations are applicable, if the Service causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Payment account or causes funds from your Payment Account to be directed to a person or entity which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, the Service shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Payment Account and for directing to the proper recipient any previously misdirected payments or transfers.

Payment will be made to your Payee either electronically via the Automated Clearing House (ACH) or by check. The method of payment depends upon the processing method that can be accommodated by the Payee or U.S. Central Credit Union (e.g., some Payees are unable to accept electronic payments). The payment may be deducted from your Payment Account by two methods depending upon the amount of the payment and your credit history. The two methods are: 1.) Via an electronic debit through the Automated Clearing House Association (ACH) or 2.) Via a draft drawn on your account and processed through the Federal Reserve System (as if you had written a check drawn upon your Checking Account.) All bill payments debited from your account will appear on your monthly Statement of Account and under the "BILL PAY HISTORY" section of the Internet Bill Pay on the Credit Union Internet Home Banking System. ACH debits will reflect the name of the Payee (e.g., XYZ Utility Company) as well as the date and amount; payments by check will be reflected on your statement with a date, payee and address, and amount.

All payments can be viewed with the Payee's name, payment amount and payment date by reviewing your recent payment history under the electronic Payment List option provided to you as part of the Internet Bill Pay Service.

The following payment types are prohibited through the Service:

1. Tax Payments

PIN/Password and Security

To access the Internet Bill Pay service you will need to log on to the Credit Union Internet Home Banking service and then click on the Bill Payment icon from the Bill Payment pull down menu. From there the system will bring up the Internet Bill Pay options for you to use (using the Account Number and PIN associated with this service).

You agree not to give or make available your The Credit Union Internet Banking Account Number and PIN to any unauthorized individuals. You are responsible for all bill payments you authorized using the Service. If you permit other persons to use the Service or your The Credit Union Account Number and PIN (even though you have agreed not to disclose this information); you are responsible for all transactions they authorize. If you believe that your The Credit Union Account Number and PIN has been lost, stolen or compromised, or that someone may attempt to use the Service without your consent or has transferred money from your account by accessing your account without your permission, you must notify The Credit at once by calling us during business hours.

You also agree that The Credit Union may revoke your Internet Bill Pay and/or Internet Home Banking account access services if unauthorized account access and/or transactions occur as the apparent result of negligence in the safeguarding of the Account Number and PIN(s) belonging to you and/or your authorized user. Further, you agree that, if The Credit Union is notified that you have included the credit union in the filing of a petition of bankruptcy, The Credit Union may revoke or refuse to grant you Internet Bill Pay service and/or The Credit Union Internet Home Banking account access to your account.

Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers

If you tell the credit union within two (2) Business Days after you learn of unauthorized access to your account(s) and/or that your The Credit Union Internet Home Banking Account Number and PIN has been lost, stolen or compromised, you can lose no more than $50.00. If you fail to notify the credit union within (2) Business Days after you learn of unauthorized access to your account(s) and/or that your The Credit Union Internet Home Banking Account Number and PIN has been lost, stolen or compromised, and we can prove that we could have prevented the unauthorized access to your account(s), or use of your The Credit Union Internet Home Banking Account Number and PIN had you notified us, you could lose as much as $500.00. If your monthly statement or your online account detail reflects any transfers or payments that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the first statement which reflected an unauthorized transfer(s) or payment(s) was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days, provided that we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking money if you had told us in time.

Errors and Questions

In case of errors and questions about your electronic transfers or payments, as soon as you can, you should:

1. Telephone us
2. Write us

If you think that your statement is wrong or you need more information about a bill payment listed on the statement, we must hear from you no later than (60) days after you received the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. You must:

1. Tell us your name and account number.
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information, and
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, in person or by telephone, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) Business Days after providing verbal notification.

We will tell you the results of our investigation within ten (10)* Business Days after we hear from you, and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate the complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will re-credit your account within ten (10)* Business Days for the amount you think is in error, so that you may have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) Business Days, we may not re-credit your account.

If we determine there was no error, we will send you a written explanation within three (3) Business Days after we finish the investigation. We may revoke any provisional credit provided to you if we find that an error did not occur. You may ask for copies of documents, which we used in our investigation.

*If you give notice of an error within 30 days after you make the first deposit to your account, we will have 20 business days instead of 10 business days.

Disclosure of Account Information to Third Parties

It is our general policy to treat your account information as confidential. However, we will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make ONLY in the following situations:

1. If we return transfers or payments made from your account which are drawn on insufficient funds or if we are unable to complete an electronic transfer or payment because of insufficient funds, or
2. Where it is necessary for completing transfers, or
3. In order to verify the existence and condition of your account to a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant, or
4. To a consumer reporting agency for quality assurance.
5. In order to comply with a governmental agency or court orders, or
6. If you give us your written permission.

Charges or Fees

As a participant in the Internet Bill Pay Service there is "no fee" for this service and you have unlimited transactions. Please note: Your Credit Union loan accounts may not be paid by using the Internet Bill Pay Service, but instead may be paid by using the transfer/payment option on the Credit Union Internet Home Banking service or by automatic transfer from your The Credit Union Checking account at no charge. Additionally, charges for other transactions and optional services (e.g., Non-Sufficient Funds or Stop Payment Fees) are specified in The Credit Unions Rate & Fee Schedule, which can be found on the Credit Union Credit Union web site.

You agree to pay such fees and charges, and authorize the Service to charge your designated Payment Account for these amounts and any additional charges that may be incurred by you. Any fees associated with your savings or loan accounts will continue to apply.

You are responsible for any and all telephone access fees or Internet service fees that may be assessed by your telephone utility and/or Internet Service Provider.

In the Event a Service Transaction Is Returned

In using the Service, you are requesting the system to make payments for you from your Payment Account. If we are unable to complete the transaction for any reason associated with your Payment Account (for example, there are not sufficient funds in your Payment Account to cover the transaction), the transaction may not be completed. In some instances you will receive a return notice by secure electronic message via the Credit Union Internet Home Banking service. In these cases, you agree that a non-sufficient funds (NSF) fee will be charged in accordance with the credit union's established and published fees.

Alterations and Amendments

The terms of this Agreement, applicable fees and service charges may be altered or amended by the Service from time to time. In such event, the Service shall send notice to you at your address of record or by secure electronic message via the Credit Union Internet Home Banking service. Any use of the services after the service sends you a notice of change will constitute your agreement to such change(s). Further, the Service, may, from time to time, revise or update the programs, services, and/or related material, which may render all such prior versions obsolete. Consequently, the Service reserves the right to terminate this Agreement as to all such prior versions of the Internet Bill Pay programs, services, and/or related material and limit access to the Service's more recent revisions and updates.

Address Changes

You agree to promptly notify The Credit Union via the Internet Banking service member/customer service in writing of any address change. Changing your address on the Service does not automatically update your address of record at The Credit Union. Similarly, updating your address at The Credit Union does not automatically update the address on the Service.

Termination or Discontinuation

In the event you wish to discontinue the Service, you must contact The Credit Union within 10 days prior to the actual service discontinuation date. You must request the service discontinuation by written correspondence sent via the mail. Written notice must be signed and sent to:

Payee Limitations

The Service reserves the right to refuse to pay any person or entity to which you may direct a payment. The Service is obligated to notify you promptly if it decides to refuse to pay a person or entity designated by you. This notification is not required if you attempt to pay tax or court-related payments or payments outside the United States and its possessions/territories (American Samoa, Guam, Marshall Islands, Micronesia, N. Mariana Islands, Palau, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands), which are prohibited under this agreement.

In addition, you agree that the Service reserves the right to obtain financial information regarding your account from a merchant or financial institution to resolve payment-posting problems.

Disputes

In the event of a dispute regarding the Service, you and the Service agree to resolve the dispute by looking to this Agreement. You agree that this Agreement is the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between you and the Service which supersedes any proposal or prior agreement, oral or written, and any other communications between you and the Service relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. If there is a conflict between what one of the Service's employees says and the terms of this Agreement, the terms of the Agreement shall control.

Assignment
