

Greater Kentucky Credit Union Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA)

Greater Kentucky Credit Union, Inc. does not knowingly collect, maintain, or use personal information from our website about children under 13 years of age, and this website is not designed to attract children. If a child under 13 sends personal information online, we will only use that information respond directly to the child, notify parents, or seek parental consent.

April 1, 2009