

Safe and Sound

In an uncertain economy, you can take comfort knowing that your money is safe and sound at InvesTex Credit Union. Since 1952, your credit union has successfully employed a culture of conservatism. In addition to the deposit insurance of up to $250,000 that all members can appreciate, the credit union has never engaged in risky investments and focuses its efforts on serving the membership as well as the local community. InvesTex Credit Union is not involved in the subprime mortgage market or any other subprime market. We make loans to you when you need the financial resource. InvesTex Credit Union does not have a “liquidity crunch” as discussed in the media regarding the general economy.

Conservatively operated, financially strong, plenty of liquidity to make loans, and Safe and Sound are credit union attributes you as members expect and the Board of Directors, management and staff deliver! You and your family are members of an outstanding credit union, a long-term relationship much valued and appreciated by everyone here at InvesTex Credit Union. As a community we have with great resilience, come through other economic downturns, recessions, hurricanes, etc., and it is during these difficult times that credit unions (your credit union) step up and provide needed support growing stronger as a result.

The best marketing the credit union receives is when you are pleased with our efforts and spread that positive experience to others. Please continue to encourage your friends and neighbors to join InvesTex Credit Union and participate in the many benefits of membership! From our family to yours, we hope that everyone enjoys the season.

Thank you for your membership!
