Use the cash benefits to help pay for:

- Leftover medical expenses like copayments and deductibles (including those for prescription drugs).
- Out-of-pocket costs like travel to and from special treatment centers, food and lodging while you're away, long-distance phone calls, child care, household help, home care, etc.
- Everyday living expenses like house or rent payments, car notes, groceries, and utility bills.
- Loss of income when one paycheck stops—or both, if the healthy spouse has to miss work to care for the recuperating partner.

Our insurance policies and services:

- Provide a choice of plans to fit individual needs.
 - Pay benefits regardless of any other insurance you have.
 - Give you control over how the cash benefits are spent.
- Also, Aflac policies are portable and guaranteed-renewable.*
