

Wings Financial Announces Partnership With Sun Country Airlines

Credit union brings financial products and services to employees of top-ranked airline

APPLE VALLEY, Minn. – July 30 – Minnesota-based Wings Financial Federal Credit Union today announced it has reached an agreement with Sun Country Airlines to offer a broad range of financial products and services to the more than 1,000 employees of the Minnesota-based carrier.

"This is a great partnership between two Minnesota-based companies that serve customers both here and in places far from home," said Paul Parish, Wings Financial president and chief executive officer. "Sun Country is one of the industry's top-ranked airlines and we are proud that we have the opportunity to serve its employees wherever their travels take them."

"Partnering with Wings Financial was a logical choice for us," said John Fredericksen, Sun Country vice president administration "They share our commitment to customer service and their culture of friendly excellence matches ours. And, because their roots are deep in our industry, they understand the busy lifestyle of airline employees."

As part of the agreement, Wings Financial will begin promoting its products and services to Sun Country employees immediately. Wings Financial will also offer Sun Country employees a customized line of checks featuring Sun Country aircraft images.
