

Bridgeport Police Federal Credit Union

Member Privacy Policy

We at the Bridgeport Police Federal Credit Union respect our members' right to privacy and vow to protect it with regard to information we have on file. We pledge the following:

1. We will not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our members or former members to anyone other than service providers and other nonaffiliates that are necessary to conduct Credit Union business or provide related products, except as required by law.
2. We will comply with all applicable privacy laws.
3. We will provide our members the opportunity to verify the accuracy of identifying information about them.
4. To collect and utilize information for legitimate Credit Union business only.
5. To maintain accurate records based on information provided by our members.
6. To protect our members' personal information using security measures that comply with federal law.

We continue to share information about former members, as permitted by law, for our everyday business purposes such as to update credit history or respond to court orders.

Third Party Service Providers/Nonaffiliates:

The types of service providers/nonaffiliates the Credit Union normally uses in the regular course of business are as follows:

| | |
|--|---------------------------------|
| Data processors | Consumer reporting agencies |
| Legal/Accounting firms | Payroll/ACH providers |
| Repossession/collection companies | Identity verification providers |
| Mail processing centers (statements) | |
| Check printing company (personal checks) | |
| Insurance providers | |

The Credit Union has no affiliates.

The Credit Union has the following Joint Marketing Agreement(s):

CUNA Mutual Group - to market insurance products such as property, life, disability and death and dismemberment (AD & D) insurance.

Third Party Restriction (Opt-out):

The Credit Union only discloses member information to our service providers, consumer reporting agencies, and other nonaffiliates who are necessary in conducting Credit Union business. We do not provide information to companies so they can market to members or to companies that are not necessary to the operation of the Credit Union, except as required by law, therefore, we do not provide an opt-out option.

Privacy Notice:

As required by the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the Credit Union will distribute privacy notices right before opening an account and annually thereafter.

Approved: 6/00
Revised: 12/10