University of Illinois Employees Credit Union Recognizes 10-Year Volunteer Director

Dennis Spice

Champaign, IL – The U of I Employees Credit Union (UIECU) is proud to recognize Dennis Spice for 10 years of dedicated service.

Mr. Spice, who has been a member at the credit union for more than 20 years, has served as one of its volunteer Board of Directors for 10 years.

Mr. Spice has graciously volunteered his time on the UIECU Board of Directors to ensure that the interests of its member-owners are served diligently. As a Board Member, Mr. Spice has served in many different capacities. Currently, Mr. Spice serves as the Secretary of the Board of Directors and Chairperson of the Credit Committee.

Unlike for-profit banks, control of credit unions and its management is in the hands of its membership. Once a year UIECU members elect a Board of Directors from the membership who are committed to creating lasting relationships that make a difference in the financial lives of its members. These members are unpaid volunteers, like Mr. Spice. The welfare of their fellow members and the sound operation of the credit union is their driving focus.

Mr. Spice is currently focused on Institutional Advisors, Ltd. his consulting business. In addition to serving on the UIECU Board of Directors he serves his community through his efforts with Champaign West Rotary and Eastern Illinois University Foundation.

Mr. Spice served nine years with the U.S. Marine Corps and holds an Associate Degree from the University of New York State, BA in Management from Eastern Illinois University, and an Executive MBA from the University of Illinois.

The U of I Employees Credit Union was founded in 1932, and today serves the University of Illinois community and anyone who lives or works in Champaign County. The credit union is a full-service financial alternative providing checking accounts, investments, low-cost consumer loans, mortgages, and related financial services to its member-owners. As a not-for-profit, member-owned financial cooperative, the U of I Employees Credit Union's goal is to improve the financial lives of its members. The credit union serves close to 35,000 member-owners at its four locations in Champaign-Urbana and on the web at www.uiecu.org.
