SUSAN MINVIELLE EARNS NAFCU CERTIFIED COMPLIANCE OFFICER CERTIFICATION

PLAQUEMINE, LA – Dow Louisiana Federal Credit Union (DLFCU), located in Plaquemine, Louisiana, has announced that Susan Minvielle, Internal Audit & Compliance Officer, has earned the National Association of Federal Credit Unions Certified Compliance Officer (NCCO) Certification.

"We are delighted Susan Minvielle has earned this prestigious and nationally recognized certification," said Dow Louisiana Federal Credit Union President and CEO Jeff Hendrickson. "We have found that the best way to maximize our member service is to provide or make available the necessary professional education that allows our staff to excel in their respective positions."

The NCCO designation is earned by professionals who have successfully completed a series of certification examinations provided by the National Association of Federal Credit Unions (NAFCU) that test their knowledge and understanding of regulatory compliance. The designation is valid for two years. To maintain certification, candidates must provide evidence of continuing education in compliance or successfully complete updated examinations.
