Brief history on Pennstar –

Our credit union is currently not open to the public. We have within our Charter* certain Companies in the community that can offer membership to Pennstar. We have, over the years, added Companies and had other credit unions merge with Pennstar.

If your employer is in our charter, you and any immediate family member can join our credit union. Because we are a non-profit financial institution you are considered a member not a customer. You are part owner of the credit union. There are no outside stockholders and our Board of Directors are members of the credit union. They are volunteers and do not receive compensation

We offer a full range of financial products and are Federally Insured by the Federal Government agency NCUA.

Essay Question

Why do you bank at your current financial institution?

What do you most value in that financial institution?

What services do you use?

Please provide specific products that you would like Pennstar to offer.

How would you choose a financial institution? Example website, friends recommendation, parents suggestion, etc.

*Charter defines who may belong to the credit union.
