

Use your Credit Union Wisely and Live Well Financially

Member Referral Form

It Takes Members to Make Members . . .

As a member of GMCU, you know the benefits of your membership. So why not pass those benefits on to your family and business associates?

It's easy to do! Just stop by any GMCU location to pick up your New Member Referral Form or simply print from your own PC. Print as many as you like and list your name and member number in the "sponsor member" blank. Then pass them out to your family members and business associates who are not already members of GMCU. (Family Members include: spouse, child, sibling, parent, grandparent or grandchild, stepparents, stepchildren, stepsiblings, and adoptive relationships. Household relationships are people living in the same home as a single economic unit.)

Let your family and fellow workers know you referred them to Greensboro Municipal Credit Union for membership. Please include their e-mail address and we will send a short message to them.
